

50 brave cold for march

Souper Fridays coming 1-8 of

The Chevy Chase Community Center is holding Souper Fridays from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. for the next two Fridays in the center at 640 N. Fifth Ave. in White Township.

People can eat in or order take-out with orders delivered to shut-ins, groups and the elderly within a 10-mile radius of the center. The soup is free, but donations are accepted to help support activities at the center. Soups this month are chicken noodle, tortellini, chili and cream of potato. To order, call (724) 463-0674.

A free blood-pressure clinic will be held in the center from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Jan. 16 by the Indiana Regional Medical Center.

The center also is accepting items for troops in Afghanistan and Iraq. Known as the Indiana Cares for American Reserves and Enlisted troops, the I-CARE program is being coordinated by Pat Kenworthy.

Donations of such items as microwave popcorn, coca mix, paperback books, magazines and puzzle books or money for postage can be dropped off daily at the center.

William Clemmons, executive director of the Chevy Chase Community Center participated in the Fifth annual Freedom March.
