

RECOGNIZED FOR WORK — The Chevy Chase Community Center and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People held its annual Holiday Recognition Party Dec. 12 at the Chevy Chase Community Center. The Chevy Chase board was recognized for its youth project, I-CARE (Indiana Cares for American Reserve and Enlisted Troops), in which youths sent care packages to Indiana County troops. From left are, Lillian Clemons, executive director of the Chevy Chase Community Center; Pat Kenworthy, recipient of the care to share donations for the youth project; Edwina Vold, NAACP president; Yvonne Redd, Chevy Chase board president; and Nell Webb, coordinator.
