

TOT TIME — The 2003 Toys for Tots project served more than 620 Indiana County children, the highest number ever enrolled, according to spokesmen from co-sponsors the Indiana County Community Action Program and the U.S. Marine Corps. New to the program this year, the Chevy Chase Community Center also served as the distribution site. From left: Debbie Martin of ICCAP; Louise Lamboy, with her son Luke, 2½; Lance Cpl. Thomas Williams; Cpl. Fritz Heilman, holding Lauren Lamboy, Luke's twin sister; Lil Clemons, executive director of the Chevy Chase ICCAP; Jackie Barto of the Chevy Chase center; volunteer Michaela Nemeth; Wendy Nemeth of ICCAP; and volunteer David Martin.

(Gazette photo by Jamie Isenberger)